

Breastfeeding: Human Medicine

3 hours of free, interactive breastfeeding education for health care professionals, peer counselors and anyone who works with breastfeeding women.

What's in the module?

- 5 multi-media units showcasing different breastfeeding scenarios
- An emphasis on racial equity in breastfeeding
- Examples of health care professionals and community members supporting breastfeeding together
- Fully-referenced, evidence-based content with links to more resources
- Big-picture overview of breastfeeding in the US
- Pre & post tests and a certificate of completion

Who is it for?

Health care providers | Nurses | Community support persons | Lactation consultants | Public health professionals | Breastfeeding families | Everyone!

Want to start right now? Click here:
<https://inspire-health.org/courses>

Want more information? Email:
CHAMPSbreastfeed@gmail.com OR visit
<https://inspire-health.org/courses>

"I learned so much even though I already know about breastfeeding!"

(MA, IBCLC)